

Podcast: The Post Office Horizon Scandal

24 June 2020

In this episode, we look at the Post Office Horizon scandal, an app that caused what some people are describing as the largest miscarriage of justice in British legal history.

We look at some bugs, the legal judgements and what might have gone wrong at the Post Office to allow things to go so off track. I analyse what we can learn from the disaster to help stop this from happening in our own projects.

The MP3 (Audio) file is available here. (https://github.com/phoughton/podcasts/raw/main/post_office/final_normalised_post_office_1.mp3)